19TH YEAR. NO. 279.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1902.

TWO CENTS.

UNCONSCIOUS AN HOUR COVERED WITH BRUISES AND BLEEDING TERRIBLY

The Frightful Plight in Which John Walters
Found Himself After an Unprovoked Assault.

Lying prostrate with his face buried in a pool of blood, John Walters, a resident of Second street, who has been employed in local potteries as a kiln fireman for over 20 years, awoke at 3:30 o'clock this morning in Mulberry alley, between Third and Fourth streets, suffering with a burning headache and from bruises located at many different spots over his body.

For a few minutes after waking his brain was so muddled that he could remember nothing and he lay trying to collect his thoughts. Blood which had streaming from wounds inflicted on his forehead had filled his eyes until he could not see, and it was only after a superhuman effort that he regained his feet and was able to walk from the lonely spot.

Going to his home he was tendered the care of friends, and after the blood had been washed away and his wounds dressed he was placed in bed and rested as comfortably as could be ex-

BOATLOAD UPSET Three Persons Riding on the River Involuntarily Took an Icy Bath.

As the result of a peculiar escapade, three people, one of them a woman weighing close to 200 pounds, had a narrow escape from a watery grave yesterday afternoon at about 4 o'clock in the Ohio river near the first pier of the East Liverpool bridge.

One of the trio is known by the name of Miller and he lives in a shanty boat moored in the river on the West Virginia side, a short distance from the tin mill. The woman's name cannot be learned, but it is said that she is Miller's housekeeper. The name of the third person is also unknown.

They had, it is claimed, been for several hours indulging in booze at a notorious resort on Smoky Row, and when they reached the edge of the river a number of people employed along the wharf say that all were in a beastly state of intoxication. Miller pushed a johnboat off shore into the water, and like a barrel of salt each rolled into it. The woman and the unknown man were sitting in the rear seat, while Miller had the oars. He managed to get the boat under headway, and everything progressed nicely until the two in the rear seat became

Mrs. Thomas Bennett Did Not Want a Telephone Pole Near Her House and It Was Not Erected.

With a garden hose as her only friction and gave the company permission to erect one there.

About three weeks ago, says Mrs. Bennett, living at the corner of Diamond and Washington streets, defied a gang of men employed by the Central District and Printing Telegraph company this morning while they were attempting to erect a telephone pole in front of the house and when she finally put the entire number to flight loud cheers were accorded the plucky woman, by the large crowd of spectators that had assembled.

When the telephone company decided to install the underground system months ago they found it necessary to have certain poles inserted, and applied to the street committee of council for permission, asking that the exact location of the poles be designated. The committee in deciding upon the numerous locations thought that one at the curb in front of the Bennett residence would cause no

MADE INQUIRIES IN THIS CITY

GOVERNMENT MEN LOOKED AF-TER LIQUOR DEALERS.

George W. Meredith, Who Was Visited, Says It Was a Customary Thing.

Deputy Revenue Collector A. W. Frayer, of Youngstown, with two of his assistants, and Special United States Gauger Lee Raymond, of Cincinnati, arrived in East Liverpool last Friday, and spent the time until this morning in making a few inquiries concerning the methods and systems employed by the local liquor dealers, wholesale and retail, in the conduct of their establishments.

The wholesale concern of G. W. Meredith occupied the officials' time while here, but in spite of the most careful inquiry, no information could be secured as to exactly what the purpose of their visit was and what they expect to accomplish.

Mr. Meredith was interviewed by a News Review reporter at noon today and said: "It is the custom of the revenue officials to pay visits at regular intervals to the various districts under their jurisdiction. I presume that was their purpose in coming to East Liverpool. These representatives of the government have the authority to go over books and inspect stock at any time it suits their fancy. If any discrepancy was found or an irregularity discovered in this city I know nothing of it. The revenue officials are not in the habit of giving much information to the public, and if there was anything startling developed, the liquor dealers, with myself will receive notification in the usual way."

DUFFY HAS RETURNED

Reports a Very Successful Meeting of the A. F. of L. at
New Orleans.

Thomas J. Duffy, who went from this city as a delegate to the American Federation of Labor at New Orleans, returned today.

He reports that the meeting was large and very satisfactory in every way. The subject which was most discussed was the jurisdiction of the defined organization, where to begin and where to leave off. The eight-hour movement was discussed thoroughly. A resolution introduced to have the working people vote the Socialistic ticket was defeated. The report shows an increase in the membership of 300,000 in the past year.

The next meeting will be held in Boston the second Tuesday in November.

SERIOUSLY ILL

HON. WM. COPE STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS.

Well Known As State Treasurer And Former Representative From This County.

Columbus, November 25.—(Special)—Hon. William T. Cope, ex-state treasurer, for many years a resident of Salineville, is very seriously ill as a result of a stroke of paralysis at his home at 222 King avenue, Columbus, Saturday night. Mr. Cope is one of the best known men in Ohio. His entire right side is affected and he is barely able to articulate. He is still conscious.

Mr. Cope was a resident of Salineville for many years, where he conducted a large general store. He also was cashier of the Salineville Banking Company, afterwards the firm of Cone & Thompson, bankers. He represented Columbiana county in the lower house in 1886 and 1888, and served as chairman of the finance committee, the most important chairmanship in the house. He left Salineville about 16 years ago, locating in Cleveland, where he became a member of a large coal firm. He was elected treasurer of state from Cleveland serving two terms, 1892 to 1896.

He served in the civil war as captain of Company A, 143rd Ohio Volunteer Infantry. He sustained a slight attack of paralysis about two years ago. Last January he resigned the presidency of the Commercial National Bank, of this city, the state of his health inducing the step.

PRETTY TEACHER HAS Eloped

Young Lady Well Known in This County Figures in a Sensation.

TWO MEN OF FAMILY STATE LAW ON SUBJECT

Are Alleged to Have Run Away With Women, One Being the Daughter of George W. McGinnis, Former School Superintendent.

Columbus, November 25.—(Special)—A special from Asheville, N. C., tells of a sensational double elopement, a beautiful and accomplished Columbiana county lady being one of the elopers. According to the dispatch, she is Miss Pearl McGinnis, of Signal, and the man she eloped with is Prof. H. H. Bridgewater, a prominent educator of Toronto, Canada. On the train which bore the couple was Dr. D. H. Montgomery, and Mrs. Elias Grossett, both of Pacolet, who also eloped. Both Dr. Montgomery and Prof. Bridgewater leave a wife and three children, one girl and boys girls in each case. Society is greatly arought up over the affair on account of the prominence of the parties involved.

Miss Pearl McGinnis is well known to many former Columbiana county people now residing here, who are shocked, and hope the story will prove to be untrue. Miss McGinnis is a school teacher and is the daughter of George W. McGinnis, who was superintendent of the schools at Columbiana for a number of years. He was a very successful educator and was well known throughout the state. He parted with his first wife and afterwards ran away with a Miss Snyder, one of his teachers. They were married, but his second marriage, like the first, was marked by domestic infidelity and in a short time he and his second wife separated and went in opposite directions.

After leaving Columbiana he taught in several different places in the state, and finally went to Allegheny where he secured a position in one of the schools there. He does not hold it now. His daughter, Pearl, her former friends say, was unusually bright, beautiful and modest, and had winning ways which made her a general favorite. They are of the opinion that she went to Asheville to take a teaching position. Her father's troubles are familiar to Columbian county people.

KEEPING BOOKS FOR THE CITY

East Liverpool Anxious For a Uniform System in Municipalities.

IS INOPERATIVE BECAUSE OF NO APPROPRIATION TO PUT IT INTO EFFECT—EACH OFFICIAL CAN NOW GO AS HE PLEASES SIMPLICITY BEST.

East Liverpool municipal authorities are still waiting to hear something of the law passed to regulate the system of bookkeeping in cities. In almost every case the methods employed by the hundreds of city clerks are at variance, and as a result there have been times when it was extremely difficult for those in authority to locate an error. For that reason there has been much confusion.

The auditing committee appointed by council each year has spent hour after hour in going over the books, not because of their lack of knowledge with reference to business systems and methods, but because of the intricate and personal plans of running a set of books. The question has been discussed at length by a number of the councilmen, and they are of the opinion that the same system should prevail all over the state.

At the last regular session of the general assembly, held last spring, a bill was passed requiring that all cities of the state adopt the same system of municipal accounting, the plan to be prepared and tested, and when approved of by the auditor of the state, to be supplied to the several city clerks and other municipal accountants.

The only drawback to the successful operation of the measure at that time was the all-important fact that the lawmakers failed to make the necessary appropriation to pay the salaries of the additional accountants who have been added to Auditor Gilbert's force. However, when the extraordinary session was held a few weeks ago, the matter was taken up and the appropriation made furnishing the necessary money.

It has been said that heretofore all of the city clerks and accountants who have charge of any department of municipal work, whether in the engineering, water works, the commissioners' or any other department, may adopt any system they like and conduct it as they see fit, so long as those in charge of these departments raise no objection. The result of this custom has been that every bookkeeper has conducted his office on a plan of accounting peculiar to himself, and different in many ways from his predecessor. So it has been a source of much annoyance and not a little expense to every city. In some cases an expert

SIX MONTHS BEHIND

In Giving the News Is a Local Paper
Claiming to Be First.

A local paper on Friday discovered that C. P. Rothwell, the East Palestine coal operator, had taken up a number of coal leases in Hancock county in company with Walter Mullins. Yesterday it told the same story, adding that it had been first to give to the public an account of the transaction. The News Review always gives the news when it is news, as is evidenced by an account of Mr. Rothwell's leases and by the following interview with Mr. Rothwell published in these columns on Thursday, June 5, of this year:

"I have associated with me Walter Mullins, superintendent of a large Massillon coal company. Mr. Mullins is a thoroughly practical man, and if there is anything in the territory we will certainly develop it."

"A start on the test would have been made some time ago had Mr. Mullins been able to spare the time from his work at Deerfield. However, this is not now in the way, and as soon as the machinery arrives work will begin."

Named as Guardian.
Lisbon, November 25.—(Special)—On application Cornelius Cronin has been appointed guardian of Mary Sating, an East Liverpool minor, under bond of $2,000.

$10,000 IS ASKED BY A. W. HILL

IN A SUIT AGAINST UNITED POW-ER COMPANY.

Says He Was Seriously Injured While
Riding in an East Liverpool
Street Car.

Lisbon, November 25.—(Special)—The $10,000 damage suit of Arthur D. Hill, of East Liverpool, against the United Power company of that city, is being heard today. Mr. Hill, in his petition, says that on March 11, 1902, when he was riding to Wellsville on one of the company's cars he received internal injuries which have caused him great suffering, and from which he has not recovered.

The car was running at a rapid rate, and in striking a depression in the roadway jumped the track and went down an embankment. Mr. Hill was thrown across a seat immediately in front of him, receiving severe injuries about the abdomen. He has been unable to follow his calling as real estate dealer and has been abroad for treatment since.

P. M. Smith, Wellsville, and W. S. Anderson, Youngstown, represent the plaintiff, and Congressman R. W. Taylor and Prosecuting Attorney J. H. Brookes are appearing for the defendant.

OVERCOME IN COURT

Mrs. Ellen O'Connor, of This City,
Seized With Paralysis at Lisbon.

Lisbon, November 25.—(Special)—Mrs. Ellen O'Connor, wife of Edward M. O'Connor, of Monroe street, East Liverpool, who was a witness in a case on trial here yesterday, was seized with a stroke of paralysis in the court room after testifying and for a time her condition was regarded as very serious. She was unable to talk. Dr. Moore was called and found she was suffering from paralysis. She was taken to a hospital. Today she is reported better and will be taken home.

She was a witness in the suit of her mother, Mrs. Starkey, against her brother, Thomas Starkey, Mrs. Starkey suing to recover $400 which she alleges her son borrowed. After Mrs. O'Connor's sudden illness, a compromise was effected, Starkey to pay his mother $200 and costs.

POTTS' FIERY WORDS

Under Consideration By the Columbiana County Bar Association.

Lisbon, November 25.—(Special)—A committee of the Columbian County Bar association now has under consideration the article appearing in the Daily Patriot of last Saturday with a view of determining if any action should be taken on account of the publication.

No conclusion has been reached. The article in question was headed "An Attempt to Muzzle the Press."

THE MERIT SYSTEM IN THE NEW CODE

Rules That Will Make Candidates
For Places Stand on Their Own Qualifications.

NO PAYING POLITICAL DEBT

Will Be Tolerated—A Misdemeanor to
Solicit Aid in Getting a Place—Political Contributions And Lobbying
Strictly Barred.

Those of the city who expect to be examined for positions which the board of public safety has power to grant under the Nash code need have no fear of injurious tales of their past or present being reported to the board for the purpose of diminishing their chances for appointment. The following section, 172 of the code, applies directly to that point and will be of much interest to not only prospective candidates for examination, but to the citizen in general:

"No person or officer shall wilfully or corruptly, by himself or in co-operation with one or more persons, defeat, deceive or obstruct any persons, with respect to his right to examination, or falsely or corruptly mark, grade or estimate or report upon the examination or proper standing of any person examined hereunder, or aid in so doing, or wilfully or corruptly make any false representation concerning the same or concerning the person examined, or wilfully or corruptly furnish to any person any special or secret information for the purpose of either improving or injuring the prospects or chances of the person so examined or to be examined, or to be appointed, employed or promoted, or wilfully impersonate any other person or permit or aid in any manner any other person to impersonate him in connection with any examination or registration or application, or request to be examined or registered, or who shall make known to any applicant for exoneration, in advance of such examination any question to be asked on such examination, shall for each offense be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor."

The applicant, although befriended by the above, will be restricted in a manner as severe. No applicant for appointment, either directly or indirectly, shall pay or promise to pay any money or other valuable thing to any person whomsoever, for or on account of his appointment or proposed appointment, and no officer or employee shall pay or promise to pay either directly or indirectly to any person any money or valuable thing whatsoever for or on account of his promotion. The applicants must pass examinations and receive appointments on their own personal merits. Section 174 says that no applicant for appointment or promotion shall ask for or receive a recommendation or assistance from any officer or employee in any department of the city government, or from any person, upon the consideration of any political service rendered or to be rendered to or for any such person, or for the promotion of such person to any office or appointment. Nor shall any person solicit orally or by letter, or be in any manner concerned in soliciting any assessment, contribution or payment for any party or any political purpose whatsoever from any officer or employee who is included within the department of public service of the city government of any such city.

Lobbying with a political purpose in view will be prohibited in any room or building occupied for the discharge of the official duties of any officer or employee in the department of public safety, and no person in charge of such room or building shall permit any person to enter the same for the purpose of therein soliciting or delivering written or oral solicitations or receiving or giving notice of any political assessments.

EAST END
FUNERAL TOMORROW

Services Will Be Held at the Second U. P. Church at 2 p. m., By Rev. Mr. McQuiston.

The funeral services of the late Milton Martin, who died yesterday at his home on Erie street, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Second Presbyterian church. Rev. D. W. McQuiston, the pastor, will officiate, assisted by Rev. N. M. Crowe, of the Second Presbyterian church. The services will be taken in charge by Pan-American court No. 127, of which he was a member. The interment will be made at Riverview cemetery.

Mr. Martin was a son of Edward and Jane Martin, pioneer citizens, who came to this city about fifty years ago from England. They have been dead a number of years. He was born in this city 27 years ago and like his father became a skilled worker in clay, and was employed at Laughlin No. 2 as a presser. He was married to Miss Pearl Scaright, who with two children, Alberta, aged about three years and Caroline, about one year of age, survive him.

The surviving brothers and sisters are: Thomas and Edward Martin, Mrs. D. J. Wallace, Mrs. Gus Brandenburg, and Mrs. Jennie Noah, all of this city. Mr. Martin was conscious until the last and made a number of requests, among them that the funeral be held at the church and the last moments with his loved ones was extremely touching. He had lived in his new home on Erie street only a month.

Plenty of Amusement.

Plenty of amusement has been provided for the people of the East End this week, which promises to be quite the gayest of the season. The entertainments present quite a diversity, enough perhaps to suit all tastes. Tonight the ladies of the Erie street M. E. church hold their bazaar and rummage sale in the P. H. C. hall. Wednesday night the Nonpareil club has a dance, Thursday evening the colored people will give a Thanksgiving supper and entertainment and Friday night it is a Nonpareil club dance again. All will be given in the Larkins & Ferguson building.

Will See the Fight.

The Kenney-Matthews fight tonight at Pittsburgh is attracting a great deal of interest among the lovers of the manly art in the East End, some of whom are acquainted with one or both of the contestants. They are picking Matthews as the winner. Messrs. Will Ferguson, Lawrence Fisher and W. D. Hopkins are among those who will go to the Smoky City to see the contest.

Found His Christmas Gift.

William Copestick, the big jiggerman at the Laughlin No. 3 plant, is wearing a fine diamond ring today of which he is extremely proud. His wearing it, however, is a little premature for it was purchased by his family for a Christmas present for him. Mr. Copestick came across the gift at the house accidentally and immediately appropriated it.

Thanksgiving Prayer Service.

A special Thanksgiving prayer service will be held Thursday evening at the Second U. P. church, to which all are cordially invited. The services will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. McQuiston, and will take the place of the regular cottage prayer meetings.

"The demand for workers in Chicago is largely in excess of the supply," says a dispatch from that city. "Of the 260,000 men enrolled in the ranks of union labor not one is idle, unless he be among the few on strike." The demand extends to every branch of labor. Railroad laborers are so scarce that 3,000 have been brought to Chicago from distant points in the west. When a great city has all its able-bodied people employed and has to look elsewhere for more workers, it would appear to be at the zenith of prosperity. Yet the conditions that exist in Chicago are found in all the great American cities today, as well as in the smaller cities and towns. Nobody need be idle anywhere who is able and willing to work. What this means is comfort and happiness for millions, in the alleviation of misery and the banishment of distress and of the terrible fear thereof is something so great that no pen can adequately depict it. Truly, the working people of America have abundant reason for celebrating Thanksgiving day this year with unusual zest and joyousness.

Thousands of men who have lived in fear and trembling can now take heart again. The circuit court at Sandusky has decided that the husband is the head of the household. The same question has been decided before in the same way. But the decision is supplemented by an opinion far-reaching and perhaps unprecedented. In a case brought before it, the court mentioned ruled that even if the wife owns the property, the husband has a right to keep his mother-in-law away from the house, if he believes she is causing trouble, and to use force, if necessary. The court held that the husband has the right to exclude any visitors if he has reason to believe they are interfering between himself and his wife.

A learned man of ancient time once drafted a set of laws in which he provided no penalty for the crime of matricide. When his attention was called to the oversight he said he thought no man would be guilty of such a crime. It appears that our own lawmakers have overlooked the possibility of crimes at American legislatures and as a result the son of Minister Hunter, at Guatemala, who killed another American in that city, is likely to go scot-free unless the Guatemalan government chooses to arrest and punish him. Legal technicalities or the absence of law, which enable any criminal to escape responsibility for his crime are not a credit to our civilization.

If ex-Minister Wu continues to talk as nicely about us Americans after he gets home as he has talked here, he ought to be able to do a good deal towards banishing hatred of foreigners from China. That is, provided he has any influence with the administration with which he is connected.

With all the arguments that are put forth against them, the colleges and universities keep on growing. Twenty years ago there was not a university in the United States that had 3,000 students. Last year six institutions each had more than that number, while probably nine-tenths of the smaller colleges showed a greatly increased attendance. The good old-fashioned idea that a college education is a good thing is more popular than ever.

The crops this year have been good, the increase in the yield of corn, as compared with last year, being 1,000,000 bushels. The rest of the cereals in the aggregate amount to much above an average crop. Apparently, there will be a good demand in Europe for most of the grain which we can spare. This will increase the work of the railroads in shipping it to the coast. Here is one of the causes of the freight car shortage, and also of the rise in wages and freight rates.

The Maine candidate for the speakership, Littlefield, is a good man, but he stands no show. Maine, having had in recent years two of the most brilliant speakers who ever presided in the house, Blaine and Reed, ought to be content to rest for a while on her laurels.

It matters not whether jealousy of Andrew Carnegie prompts his late partner, Henry C. Frick, to make large gifts to education. The benefits will be the same. Pittsburgh is fortunate in its millionaires. They are not only very rich, but very generous.

Riots in the capital of Cuba are a sad thing for a new government that is presumably anxious to command respect among the powers of the earth.

Burglars and safe robbers across the line in Pennsylvania are exhibiting a species of activity that ought to be discouraged with shot guns.

Congress does not convene until the football season ends, consequently its proceedings may attract some popular attention.

The Burlington railroad proposes to pay its employees $1,000 each for dead train robbers. What will the harvest be?

A Mexican dollar is now worth 50 cents. Why does not Bryan move to Mexico and be happy?

About this time the turkey discovers why he has been fed so well of late.

SCRAP IRON CASE

Dealers Disputed Over a Bill And a Protracted Trial Resulted.

The law suit of J. F. Householder, an Irondale scrap iron dealer, against W. H. Scheckler, of this city, also a dealer in scrap iron, was contested for nearly three hours and a half yesterday afternoon before Squire Riley and a jury of six men in the council chamber at the city hall. The dispute was over the payment of a bill for nine loads of scrap iron purchased by Mr. Scheckler from Mr. Householder last October and amounted to about $70.

Four witnesses were heard for the defendant in the case and two for the plaintiff. Attorney W. F. Lones, of this city, represented Mr. Scheckler and Attorney James E. Paisley, of Irondale, the plaintiff. The jury was composed of H. H. Catlett, E. J. Whitten, S. F. Biggs, Dallas Pittenger, G. J. Niles and H. V. Sinclair. Shortly before 4 o'clock they retired to the mayor's private office and in about three-quarters of an hour returned with a verdict for the plaintiff. They allowed him $63.75.

DR. TRACY'S LECTURES

Concluded Last Evening With an Interesting Platform Meeting—A Successful Series.

The last lecture of the series given by Dr. N. W. Tracy, the noted Kentucky evangelist, in this city was delivered last evening at the opera house. A platform meeting was held and several of the local ministers took part. "Ben Hur" was given. The story was thoroughly illustrated by Dr. Tracy with his stereopticon machine. Several moving pictures were also shown.

One of the largest crowds that have yet attended any of the evangelist's lectures was present, the opera house being packed to the doors. Dr. Tracy will soon return to this city some Sunday and will address a men's meeting in the opera house. The lectures were pronounced by local ministers as very successful, good temperance work being done by Dr. Tracy.

Funeral of Mrs. Stewart.

The funeral of the late Mrs. James Stewart, who died Saturday evening was held at 9:30 this morning at the late home on First street. Rev. Lemoine C. Wells, of the Methodist Protestant church, officiated. The body was taken on the noon train to Toronto, the former home of the deceased and interred this afternoon. Mrs. Stewart is survived by six children. They are: Frank Stewart, of Cleveland; John Stewart, of Toronto; Mrs. Martin O'Neill, of New Brighton, Pa.; James Stewart, Mrs. Charles Williamson and Mrs. Sarah Deemer, all of this city. Mrs. Stewart resided with her daughter, Mrs. Deemer, for the past 20 years.

Violated His Parole.

Mayor W. L. Fogo is in receipt of a communication from Supt. J. A. Leonard, of the Ohio state reformatory at Mansfield, asking that the local police force be on the lookout for a young man named Clark Dittéau, aged 18 years, who is wanted at the reformatory. Dittéau was paroled from the reformatory January 28 this year and has violated his parole. He was received by the reformatory June 8, 1900, for a robbery. He is 5 feet 3 inches tall and weighs about 113 pounds. He has blonde hair, brown eyes and a fair complexion. A reward of $25 is offered for his safe return. He is thought to be somewhere in this locality.

Old Soldiers Attended.

The funeral of the late William Frazer, who died Friday morning near Smith's Mills, back of this city, was held yesterday at 10 o'clock from the residence. Rev. Mr. Oliver, pastor of the Brick church, officiated. Interment was in Oak Ridge cemetery. A number of old soldiers from this city attended the funeral, the deceased having been a member of the One Hundred and Forty-third O. V. I.

Mischief Remedied.

One of the cannons upon the public square, which has been tipped up on end ever since last Halloween, was replaced to its former position sometime in the night. None of the city policemen knew who replaced the cannon to its former position, but it is believed that it was the same crowd of boys who tipped it over.

Defendant Forfeited Bond.

In the assault and battery case of Ohio against Samuel Beaver, which was set for hearing last evening before Mayor Fogo at 7 o'clock, Beaver, who had put up $25 security, failed to appear and his bond was forfeited. Beaver is alleged to have struck Thomas Howell in Higginson's saloon. He will be arrested again on the same charge.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

CLAY AND HISTORY.

Burnt clay was used long before Christ, not only in its common application, but also as pottery. We feel a certain pride when visiting museums to see ancient pottery ware, and when we can point out the artistic and mechanical finish with which some pieces were made, says S. Geijssen, in an article on "Clay as a Commercial Commodity." We find among the old reliques weapons for personal defense made of burnt clay. The most ancient of industries is the making and forming of vessels from baked clay, and it is worthy of note that, simple as were its original processes and crude its primitive product, no industry has more developed to luxury. Clay has produced the most gorgeous specimens of ornamentation. In no industry does the value of the finished article bear so great a ratio to that of the raw material as in clay, and the clay industry has steadily and continually advanced and improved with the progress of knowledge, and with the resources and discoveries of science that we can say that to date the clay industry is keeping pace with every other industry in the world. Clay has received at all times the patronage and admiration of all generations, and civilization of nations is often judged by the heights of the art their clay industry has attained.

Hieroglyphics inscribed on wet clay slabs, afterwards burnt, have furnished more data to the discovery of ancient history than any other document found, even if they were written on parchment. Those clay slabs have stood the wear and tear and weather conditions of over 3,000 years, and the honor belongs to clay for having produced a material which is practically indestructible in the burnt clay state.

In the catacombs of Thebes and Benihassau, which have been proved to have existed 19 centuries before Christ, and therefore, 3,800 years from the present time, drawings have been discovered, exhibiting in great variety of outlines the processes of the pottery industry as practiced at that time. They give an idea of the work of the potter, from the wedging of the clay by feet to the drawing of the ware from the kiln, certainly testifying that the handling and use of clay is very old art. The Chinese traditions carry back the practice of using clay to a very remote period. It appears from the researches of Stanislaus Julian that from the time of Emperor Hoang Ti, who reigned about 250 B. C., there already existed a public officer under the title of "Intendant of Clay." Dr. Drury Fortnum mentions in his work on ancient history that he has found bricks of terra-cotta coated with beautiful turquoise blue glaze, and gives as the most recent data that these bricks have been used 522 B. C., when Babylon was destroyed by Darius.

THE PACKING PROBLEM.

About the first problem which will be laid before the new arbitration board, recently appointed, will be the packers' question, and when the joint committee gets down to business in dead earnest, the knowing ones say it will take some time to dispose of this perplexing problem. But few of the operatives, even among the most active members of the Brotherhood, have an idea what tactics the nine boss packers have resorted to in order that the other members of No. 25 should suffer for daring to oppose, as an organization, the unjust and unequal contract system, in vogue in this community for so many years. When the Trenton convention declared against the plan the local was quick to act—much more prompt, by the way, than either the executive board or the conference committee have been to relieve the ones who has sacrificed so much that the unreasonable and injurious practice might be done away with forever. The local expelled nine boss packers, not all of them by any means, but the most influential and powerful. The offense was a refusal on their part to the packing problem.

ROY CALHOON, manager of the reporting department of the Potters' Protective Association, is off duty this week. Mr. Calhoon has been in ill health for some time, and is resting for the week for the purpose of recuperating.

NOTES OF THE POTTERS.

Oliver Buzzard, a diper is off duty in one of the local potters on account of a sore hand.

John Rolling, of New Brighton, was the guest Sunday of Miss Jessie Pickal, of the K. T. & K.

Miss Eva Stone has resigned her position at the William Brunt pottery, and has been succeeded by Miss Annie Burns.

Quite a number of the Sebring foot-ball players are former residents of this city and former operatives in the local potties.

J. E. Stilcliffe, the popular young stickler, who recently accepted a situation at the Sevres, has been quite ill for the past week.

PECULIAR MISHAP.

Herbert Ruhe, employed as a mould runner at Burford's, had a rather peculiar accident Sunday afternoon that might have resulted more seriously. With a number of his young companions he was enjoying himself swinging on the grape vines on Walker's cliff. Young Ruhe had selected a vine that carried him out quite a distance and at least 20 feet from the ground. On one of his trips the vine slipped from his grasp and he was precipitated to the ground. He fell on a stump and was unconscious for about half an hour. He is not seriously injured, but his escape borders on the miraculous.

Tired

No Sleep for Weeks Nervous, Weak.

Surgical Operation Wrecked My Nerves.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Re- stored My Health.

"A few years ago I had to submit to a surgical operation which caused me severe spinal trouble. After treatment I could not gain strength because of extreme nervousness. I took everything I could hear of that was supposed to be good for my trouble but all in vain. I had not had a night's sleep in weeks, when one day one of your circulars was thrown into our yard and after reading what your Nervine had done for others, I resolved to try it. The second night after taking it I slept soundly for the first time in many months and after taking a few bottles I was completely cured. I also used the Nerve Plaster for backache with very gratifying results. I shall always be grateful for the benefits received from Dr. Miles' Restorative Remedies."—Mrs. C. W. Beaman, Savannah, Mo.

"I wish to thank you for the good your medicine has done me. It has almost worked wonders in my case. I was subject to nervous headaches for a period of thirty years. I had doctor several doctors and had taken a number of different kinds of patent medicines, all to no avail. I was discouraged for I could not get permanent relief. At last I began a trial of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve and Nerve and Liver Pills. I am now completely cured and words cannot express my thankfulness to you and your medicine. If anyone wishes to write to me personally I will gladly answer their letters."—W. B. Brant, Ingram Hills.

Miss Litton suffered from lung trouble and asthma and went to the southwest for the benefit of her health. She is now at the home of her parents on Fourth street and is much improved.

FAVORED OPERATIVES.

The arbitration board met on last Friday evening in the rooms of the Potters' club, in the Thompson building. The following members of the committee were present: Manufacturers—W. E. Wells, J. R. Warner and S. M. Ferguson, representing Henry Goodwin. The operatives were represented by George Smith, E. N. Croxall and William Anderson. The cup dispute from the Akron China company, submitted at a previous meeting, was taken up and disposed of. The cup is an out of the ordinary design and the jiggers wanted three and a half cents a dozen for turning it. The manufacturers offered two and a half. The contention of the jiggers was sustained. Local manufacturers pay three and one-half cents for practically the same work. It was decided by the board that all disputes submitted be laid over at least one meeting before being decided in order that both sides can have ample time to present the case.

TIRED OUT.

There's many a farmer's wife sits on the porch in the growing shadows of a summer evening, knowing to the full what it is to feel tired out; as if there was not another ounce of effort left in her. But she knows how sound her slumber will be and how refreshed the morning will find her. That's the tiredness of a healthy woman. But it's another thing for the sick woman to feel tired out. Rest only seems to increase her suffering. Just as in profound silence a discord jars the ear more forcibly, so now that she has stopped moving about, this tired woman feels more acutely the aching back and throbbing nerves.

Sick women, hundreds of thousands of them, have been made well by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"Words cannot tell what I suffered for thirteen years with uterine trouble and dragging pains through my hips and back," writes Mrs. John Dickson of Grenfell, Assinibina Dist., N. W. Ter. "I can't describe the misery it was to be in my condition at times. I could not eat or sleep. Often I wished I died." Then Dr. Pierce's medicines advertised and thought I would try them. Had not taken one bottle till I was feeling well. After I had taken five bottles of "Favorite Prescription" and one of "Golden Medical Discovery" I was like a new woman. Could eat and sleep and do all my own work."

not a little interest in the record of Larry Lutz, the local boxer, and thought a match might be arranged between the latter and Kennedy.

It is understood Shay had a talk with Lutz and soon learned it would not be difficult to arrange the preliminaries for a contest, provided Kennedy could get down to the weight. Shay claimed to have plenty of money with which to back his man, and had no doubt he could get to the proper point in the matter of weight, but could not see the necessity of insisting upon this, since both men were so evenly matched in this regard. Shay said: "I have $150 which I will deposit with any substantial citizen for a match between Kennedy and Lutz, the only stipulation being that they fight at catch weights."

Monticello, Ill., December 15, 1902.
Eating my food in a hurried and irregular way, sometimes taking only five or six minutes to finish a meal, brought on indigestion and sick headache, which troubled me so much that I sought the doctor's advice. My skin was rough and pimply and my hair dull and heavy. The doctor said my blood and stomach were badly out of order, and advised me to take his medicine every day. I took his medicine for two weeks without getting any better. One of my friends who had been using advised me to try that. I bought a bottle that same day, and began to get better at once. Within a month I was like a new being—feeling light, happy and well, and I have enjoyed perfect health since, thanks to your excellent remedy.

Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin

Very truly yours,

Constipation

Will Undermine Your Health.

Mull's Grape Tonic Cures Constipation.

When the sewer of a city becomes stopped up, the refuse backs into the streets where it decays and rots, spreading disease-creating germs throughout the entire city. An epidemic of sickness follows. It is the same way when the bowels fail to work. The undigested food backs into the system and there it rots and decays. From this festering mass the blood saps up all the disease germs, and at every heart beat carries them to every tissue just as the water works of a city forces impure water into every house. The only way to cure a condition like this is to cure the constipation. Pills and the ordinary cathartics will do no good.

MULL'S GRAPE TONIC

Is a crushed fruit tonic-laxative which permanently cures the affliction. The tonic properties contained in the grape go into every afflicted tissue and creates strength and health. It will quickly restore lost flesh and make rich red blood. As a laxative its action is immediate and positive, gentle and natural. Mull's Grape Tonic is guaranteed or money back.

19TH YEAR. NO. 279.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1902.

TWO CENTS.

UNCONSCIOUS AN HOUR COVERED WITH BRUISES AND BLEEDING TERRIBLY

The Frightful Plight in Which John Walters Found Himself After an Unpro- voked Assault.

Lying prostrate with his face buried in a pool of blood, John Walters, a resident of Second street, who has been employed in local potteries as a kiln fireman for over 20 years, awoke at 3:30 o'clock this morning in Mulberry alley, between Third and Fourth streets, is suffering with a burning headache and from bruises located at many different spots over his body.

For a few minutes after waking his brain was so muddled that he could remember nothing and he lay trying to collect his thoughts. Blood which had streamed from wounds inflicted on his forehead had filled his eyes until he could not see, and it was only after a superhuman effort that he regained his feet and was able to walk from the lonely spot.

Going to his home he was tendered the care of friends, and after the blood had been washed away and his wounds dressed he was placed in bed and rested as comfortably as could be expected during the remainder of the night.

He was seen by a News Review reporter this afternoon and said that he had not the least idea who had put him in his terrible condition. He was en route to his home at about 2:30 o'clock, and when entering the alley from Fourth street noticed two men crouching low near the residence of Tom Dailey, but thought nothing of it and when they sprang at him he was taken very much unawares. A blow dealt by one of the brutal cowards felled Mr. Walters and then both landed dozens of hard kicks on his side top of his head and face. After that he remembers nothing until waking an hour later.

The intention of the dastardly highwaymen Mr. Walters does not know, as they did not rob him and he does not know of having an enemy in the city who would resort to such tactics in getting even.

MADE INQUIRIES IN THIS CITY

GOVERNMENT MEN LOOKED AF-
TER LIQUOR DEALERS.

George W. Meredith, Who Was Visited, Says It Was a Customary Thing.

Deputy Revenue Collector A. W. Frayer, of Youngstown, with two of his assistants, and Special United States Gauger Lee Ranson, of Cincinnati, arrived in East Liverpool last Friday, and spent the time until this morning in making a few inquiries concerning the methods and systems employed by the local liquor dealers, wholesale and retail, in the conduct of their establishments.

The wholesale concern of G. W. Meredith occupied the officials' time while here, but in spite of the most careful inquiry, no information could be secured as to exactly what the purpose of their visit was and what they expect to accomplish.

Mr. Meredith was interviewed by a News Review reporter at noon today and said: "It is the custom of the revenue officials to pay visits at regular intervals to the various districts under their jurisdiction. I presume that was their purpose in coming to East Liverpool. These representatives of the government have the authority to go over books and inspect stock at any time it suits their fancy. If any discrepancy was found or an irregularity discovered in this city I know nothing of it. The revenue officials are not in the habit of giving much information to the public, and if there was anything startling developed, the liquor dealers, with myself will receive notification in the usual way."

the A. F. of L. at
New Orleans.

Thomas J. Duffy, who went from this city as a delegate to the American Federation of Labor at New Orleans, returned today.

He reports that the meeting was large and very satisfactory in every way. The subject which was most discussed was the jurisdiction of the defined organization, where to begin and where to leave off. The eight-hour movement was discussed thoroughly. A resolution introduced to have the working people vote the Socialistic ticket was defeated. The report shows an increase in the membership of 300,000 in the past year.

The next meeting will be held in Boston the second Tuesday in November.

BOATLOAD UPSET

Three Persons Riding on the River Involuntarily Took an Icy Bath.

As the result of a peculiar escapade, three people, one of them a woman weighing close to 200 pounds, had a narrow escape from a watery grave yesterday afternoon at about 4 o'clock in the Ohio river near the first pier of the East Liverpool bridge.

One of the trio is known by the name of Miller and he lives in a shanty boat moored in the river on the West Virginia side, a short distance from the tin mill. The woman's name cannot be learned, but it is said that she is Miller's housekeeper. The name of the third person is also unknown.

They had, it is claimed, been for several hours indulging in booze at notorious resort on Smoky Row, and when they reached the edge of the river a number of people employed along the wharf say that all were in a beastly state of intoxication. Miller pushed a johnboat off shore into the water, and like a barrel of salt each rolled into it. The woman and the unknown man were sitting in the rear seat, while Miller had the oars. He managed to get the boat under headway, and everything progressed nicely until the two in the rear seat became top heavy and lunged simultaneously over to one side of the boat.

Their weight was too much for the light craft. It upset and out into the cold water the three went sprawling. That they escaped death is due to the fact that the water at that point is only a few feet deep. The men were brave and thought naught of themselves, but turned their entire attention to the female in their charge. They dragged her from the jaws of death and placed her in the boat, which they had righted. To the bank they then towed the craft, and for the first time displayed a part of ungallantry. Instead of carrying her to the bank while they bailed the boat they allowed her to lie prostrate in the water until it was removed.

Miller then took the oars and leaving the other man started with his housekeeper for the other side. They made the trip without further trouble, but it is expected that the woman will suffer from the effects of the icy bath.

Miller, it is said, is a pottery workman, and the woman only joined him recently, coming from some place near Marietta.

WOMAN WITH GARDEN HOSE DEFIED GANG OF WORKERS AND KEPT THEM AT BAY

Mrs. Thomas Bennett Did Not Want a Telephone Pole Near Her House and It Was Not Erected.

With a garden hose as her only friction and gave the company permission to erect one there.

About three weeks ago, says Mrs. Bennett, a gang of men started to dig the hole but when she protested they ceased. She thought then that her troubles were over and was very much surprised this morning when the men appeared again and started the work. The gang is in charge of Phil Corbett, but that gentleman was not present when the unusual happening occurred. J. D. Henderson was acting as temporary boss and he was the one that got the full benefit of the woman's wrath. The hole had been dug and twice were the men compelled to make the excavation. Mrs. Bennett and her son filling it up each time with bricks and dirt. Both protested with vehemence against further procedure on the part of the men but their words prevailed not.

Finally Mrs. Bennett got a board

has been necessary to straighten out the tangle.

If the new system is what the powers intended it to be, it will be possible for a man of ordinary intelligence to see at a glance just what has been accomplished in the various departments; just what the expenditures have been and what the receipts are. No one can fail to see the advantage of a plan of this character.

Ever since City Clerk Willis Davidson took charge of the office in this city he has been in favor of a system of this kind, and feels that when it is adopted it will be found generally satisfactory. The methods now employed by this official are simple and intelligent, and he has been commended many times during his incumbency for the neatness and simplicity of his systems. Still, he holds it would be vastly better to have a universal plan upon which to work. The only trouble, he asserts, is in the adoption by the state authorities of a plan which would suit all municipalities, because different conditions prevail in different communities.

It is the opinion of Clerk Davidson that it would be possible to adopt a system that would be readily understood by everybody. "It would not be necessary to demonstrate to those who audited your books that you knew it all," said Mr. Davidson yesterday, "but instead it should be made as clear as possible so that the clerk which follows may have a very simple rule of bookkeeping to follow. I invariably follow this custom, and there is no trouble whatever in discovering a mistake, if one should occur."

At the last regular session of the general assembly, held last spring, a bill was passed requiring that all cities of the state adopt the same system of municipal accounting, the plan to be prepared and tested, and when approved by the auditor of the state, to be supplied to the several city clerks and other municipal accountants.

The only drawback to the successful operation of the measure at that time was the all-important fact that the lawmakers failed to make the necessary appropriation to pay the salaries of the additional accountants who have been added to Auditor Gilibert's force. However, when the extraordinary session was held a few weeks ago, the matter was taken up and the appropriation made furnishing the necessary money.

It has been said that heretofore all of the city clerks and accountants who have charge of any department of municipal work, whether in the engineering, water works, the commissioners' or any other department, may adopt any system they like and conduct it as they see fit, so long as those in charge of these departments raise no objection. The result of this custom has been that every bookkeeper has conducted his office on a plan of accounting peculiar to himself, and different in many ways from his predecessor. So it has been source of much annoyance and not a little expense to every city. In some cases an expert

ER COMPANY.

Says He Was Seriously Injured While
Riding in an East Liverpool
Street Car.

Lisbon, November 25.—(Special)—The $10,000 damage suit of Arthur D. Hill, of East Liverpool, against the United Power company of that city, is being heard today. Mr. Hill, in his petition, says that on March 11, 1902, when he was riding to Wellsville on one of the company's cars he received internal injuries which have caused him great suffering, and from which he has not recovered.

The car was running at a rapid rate, and in striking a depression in the roadway jumped the track and went down an embankment. Mr. Hill was thrown across a seat immediately in front of him, receiving severe injuries about the abdomen. He has been unable to follow his calling as real estate dealer and has been abroad for treatment since.

P. M. Smith, Wellsville, and W. S. Anderson, Youngstown, represent the plaintiff, and Congressman R. W. Taylor and Prosecuting Attorney J. H. Brookes are appearing for the defendant.

OVERCOME IN COURT

Mrs. Ellen O'Connor, of This City,
Seized With Paralysis at Lisbon.

Lisbon, November 25.—(Special)—Mrs. Ellen O'Connor, wife of Edward M. O'Connor, of Monroe street, East Liverpool, who was a witness in a case on trial here yesterday, was seized with a stroke of paralysis in the court room after testifying and for a time her condition was regarded as very serious. She was unable to talk. Dr. Moore was called and found she was suffering from paralysis. She was taken to a hospital. Today she is reported better and will be taken home.

She was a witness in the suit of her mother, Mrs. Starkey, against her brother, Thomas Starkey. Mrs. Starkey is suing to recover $403 which she alleges her son borrowed. After Mrs. O'Connor's sudden illness, a compromise was effected, Starkey to pay his mother $200 and costs.

Lisbon, November 25.—(Special)—A committee of the Columbian County Bar Association now has under consideration the article appearing in the Daily Patriot of last Saturday with a view of determining if any action should be taken on account of the publication.

THE MERIT SYSTEM IN THE NEW CODE

Rules That Will Make Candidates
For Places Stand on Their Own Qualifications.

NO PAYING POLITICAL DEBT

Will Be Tolerated—A Misdemeanor to
Solicit Aid in Getting a Place—Political Contributions And Lobbying
Strictly Barred.

Those of the city who expect to be examined for positions which the board of public safety has power to grant under the Nash code need have no fear of injurious tales of their past or present being reported to the board for the purpose of diminishing their chances for appointment. The following section, 172 of the code, applies directly to that point and will be of much interest to not only prospective candidates for examination, but to the citizen in general:

"No person or officer shall wilfully or corruptly, by himself or in co-operation with one or more persons, defeat, deceive or obstruct any persons, with respect to his right to examination, or falsely or corruptly mark, grade or estimate or report upon the examination or proper standing of any person examined hereunder, or aid in so doing, or wilfully or corruptly make any false representation concerning the same or concerning the person examined, or wilfully or corruptly furnish to any person any special or secret information for the purpose of either improving or injuring the prospects or chances of the person so examined or to be examined, or to be appointed, employed or promoted, or wilfully impersonate any other person or permit or aid in any manner any other person to impersonate him in connection with any examination or registration or application, or request to be examined or registered, or who shall make known to any applicant for examination, in advance of such examination any question to be asked on such examination, shall for each offense be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor."

The applicant, although befriended by the above, will be restricted in a manner as severe. No applicant for appointment, either directly or indirectly, shall pay or promise to pay any money or other valuable thing to any person whomsoever, for or on account of his appointment or proposed appointment, and no officer or employee shall pay or promise to pay either directly or indirectly to any person any money or valuable thing whatsoever for or on account of his promotion. The applicants must pass examinations and receive appointments on their own personal merits. Section 174 says that no applicant for appointment or promotion shall ask for or receive a recommendation or assistance from any officer or employee in any department of the city government, or from any person, upon the consideration of any political service rendered or to be rendered to or for any such person, or for the promotion of such person to any office or appointment. Nor shall any person solicit orally or by letter, or be in any manner concerned in soliciting any assessment, contribution or payment for any party or any political purpose whatsoever from any officer or employee who is included within the department of public service of the city government of any such city.

Lobbying with a political purpose in view will be prohibited in any room or building occupied for the discharge of the official duties of any officer or employee in the department of public safety, and no person in charge of such room or building shall permit any person to enter the same for the purpose of therein soliciting or delivering written or oral solicitations or receiving or giving notice of any political assessments.

FUNERAL TOMORROW

Services Will Be Held at the Second U. P. Church at 2 p. m. By Rev. Mr. McQuiston.

The funeral services of the late Milton Martin, who died yesterday at his home on Erie street, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Second Presbyterian church. Rev. D. W. McQuiston, the pastor, will officiate, assisted by Rev. N. M. Crowe, of the Second Presbyterian church. The services will be taken in charge by Pan-American court No. 127, of which he was a member. The interment will be made at Riverview cemetery.

Mr. Martin was a son of Edward and Jane Martin, pioneer citizens, who came to this city about fifty years ago from England. They have been dead a number of years. He was born in this city 27 years ago and like his father became a skilled worker in clay, and was employed at Laughlin No. 2 as a presser. He was married to Miss Pearl Searight, who with two children, Alberta, aged about three years and Caroline, about one year of age, survive him.

The surviving brothers and sisters are: Thomas and Edward Martin, Mrs. D. J. Wallace, Mrs. Gus Brandenburg, and Mrs. Jennie Noah, all of this city. Mr. Martin was conscious until the last and made a number of requests, among them that the funeral be held at the church and the last moments with his loved ones was extremely touching. He had lived in his new home on Erie street only a month.

The colored people are arranging for a Thanksgiving celebration to be given under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. in Larkins & Ferguson's hall next Thursday evening. Supper will be served and the following program will be rendered:

Plenty of Amusement.

Plenty of amusement has been provided for the people of the East End this week, which promises to be quite the gayest of the season. The entertainments present quite a diversity, enough perhaps to suit all tastes. Tonight the ladies of the Erie street M. E. church hold their bazaar and rummage sale in the P. H. C. hall. Wednesday night the Nonpareil club has a dance, Thursday evening the colored people will give a Thanksgiving supper and entertainment and Friday night it is a Nonpareil club dance again. All will be given in the Larkins & Ferguson building.

Will See the Fight.

The Kenney-Matthews fight tonight at Pittsburg is attracting a great deal of interest among the lovers of the manly art in the East End, some of whom are acquainted with one or both of the contestants. They are picking Matthews as the winner. Messrs. Will Ferguson, Lawrence Fisher and W. D. Hopkins are among those who will go to the Smoky City to see the contest.

Found His Christmas Gift.

William Copstick, the big jiggerman at the Laughlin No. 3 plant, is wearing a fine diamond ring today of which he is extremely proud. His wearing it, however, is a little premature for it was purchased by his family for a Christmas present for him. Mr. Copstick came across the gift at the house accidentally and immediately appropriated it.

"The demand for workers in Chicago is largely in excess of the supply," says a dispatch from that city. "Of the 260,000 men enrolled in the ranks of union labor not one is idle, unless he be among the few on strike." The demand extends to every branch of labor. Railroad laborers are so scarce that 3,000 have been brought to Chicago from distant points in the west. When a great city has all its able-bodied people employed and has to look elsewhere for more workers, it would appear to be at the zenith of prosperity. Yet the conditions that exist in Chicago are found in all the great American cities today, as well as in the smaller cities and towns. Nobody need be idle anywhere who is able and willing to work. What this means is comfort and happiness for millions, in the alleviation of misery and the banishment of distress and of the terrible fear thereof is something so great that no pen can adequately depict it. Truly, the working-people of America have abundant reason for celebrating Thanksgiving day this year with unusual zest and joyousness.

Thousands of men who have lived in fear and trembling can now take heart again. The circuit court at Sandusky has decided that the husband is the head of the household. The same question has been decided before in the same way. But the decision is supplemented by an opinion far-reaching and perhaps unprecedented. In a case brought before it, the court mentioned ruled that even if the wife owns the property, the husband has a right to keep his mother-in-law away from the house, if he believes she is causing trouble, and to use force, if necessary. The court held that the husband has the right to exclude any visitors if he has reason to believe they are interfering between himself and his wife.

A learned man of ancient time once drafted set of laws in which he provided no penalty for the crime of matricide. When his attention was called to the oversight he said he thought no man would be guilty of such a crime. It appears that our own lawmakers have overlooked the possibility of crimes at American legislatures and as a result the son of Minister Hunter, at Guatemala, who killed another American in that city, is likely to go scot free unless the Guatemalan government chooses to arrest and punish him. Legal technicalities or the absence of law, which enable any criminal to escape responsibility for his crime are not a credit to our civilization.

If ex-Minister Wu continues to talk as nicely about us Americans after he gets home as he has talked here, he ought to be able to do a good deal towards banishing hatred of foreigners from China. That is, provided he has any influence with the administration with which he is connected.

With all the arguments that are put forth against them, the colleges and universities keep on growing. Twenty years ago there was not a university in the United States that had 3,000 students. Last year six institutions each had more than that number, while probably nine-tenths of the smaller colleges showed a greatly increased attendance. The good old-fashioned idea that a college education is a good thing is more popular than ever.

The crops this year have been good, the increase in the yield of corn, as compared with last year, being 1,000,000 bushels. The rest of the cereals in the aggregate amount to much above an average crop. Apparently, there will be a good demand in Europe for most of the grain which we can spare. This will increase the work of the railroads in shipping it to the coast. Here is one of the causes of the freight car shortage, and also of the rise in wages and freight rates.

The Maine candidate for the speakership, Littlefield, is a good man, but he stands no show. Maine, having had in recent years two of the most brilliant speakers who ever presided in the house, Blaine and Reed, ought to be content to rest for a while on her laurels.

It matters not whether jealousy of Andrew Carnegie prompts his late partner, Henry C. Frick, to make large gifts to education. The benefits will be the same. Pittsburgh is fortunate in its millionaires. They are not only very rich, but very generous.

Riots in the capital of Cuba are a sad thing for a new government that is presumably anxious to command respect among the powers of the earth.

Burglars and safe robbers across the line in Pennsylvania are exhibiting a species of activity that ought to be discouraged with shot guns.

Congress does not convene until the football season ends, consequently its proceedings may attract some popular attention.

The Burlington railroad proposes to pay its employees $1,000 each for dead train robbers. What will the harvest be?

A Mexican dollar is now worth 50 cents. Why does not Bryan move to Mexico and be happy?

About this time the turkey discovers why he has been fed so well of late.

SCRAP IRON CASE

Dealers Disputed Over a Bill And a Protracted Trial Resulted.

The law suit of J. F. Householder, an Ironton scrap iron dealer, against W. H. Scheekler, of this city, also a dealer in scrap iron, was contested for nearly three hours and a half yesterday afternoon before Squire Riley and a jury of six men in the council chamber at the city hall. The dispute was over the payment of a bill for nine loads of scrap iron purchased by Mr. Scheekler from Mr. Householder last October and amounted to about $70.

Four witnesses were heard for the defendant in the case and two for the plaintiff. Attorney W. F. Lones, of this city, represented Mr. Scheekler and Attorney James E. Paisley, of Ironton, the plaintiff. The jury was composed of H. H. Catlett, E. J. Whitten, S. F. Biggs, Dallas Pittenger, G. J. Niles and H. V. Sinclair. Shortly before 4 o'clock they retired to the mayor's private office and in about three-quarters of an hour returned with a verdict for the plaintiff. They allowed him $63.75.

DR. TRACY'S LECTURES

Concluded Last Evening With an Interesting Platform Meeting—A Successful Series.

The last lecture of the series given by Dr. N. W. Tracy, the noted Kentucky evangelist, in this city was delivered last evening at the opera house. A platform meeting was held and several of the local ministers took part. "Ben Hur" was given. The story was thoroughly illustrated by Dr. Tracy with his stereopticon machine. Several moving pictures were also shown.

One of the largest crowds that have yet attended any of the evangelist's lectures was present, the opera house being packed to the doors. Dr. Tracy will soon return to this city some Sunday and will address a men's meeting in the opera house. The lectures were pronounced by local ministers as very successful, good temperance work being done by Dr. Tracy.

Funeral of Mrs. Stewart.

The funeral of the late Mrs. James Stewart, who died Saturday evening was held at 9:30 this morning at the late home on First street. Rev. Lemoin C. Wells, of the Methodist Protestant church, officiated. The body was taken on the noon train to Toronto, the former home of the deceased and interred this afternoon. Mrs. Stewart is survived by six children. They are: Frank Stewart, of Cleveland; John Stewart, of Toronto; Mrs. Martin O'Neil, of New Brighton, Pa.; James Stewart, Mrs. Charles Williamson and Mrs. Sarah Deemer, all of this city. Mrs. Stewart resided with her daughter, Mrs. Deemer, for the past 20 years.

Violated His Parole.

Mayor W. L. Fogo is in receipt of a communication from Supt. J. A. Leonard, of the Ohio state reformatory at Mansfield, asking that the local police force be on the lookout for a young man named Clark Dittéau, aged 18 years, who is wanted at the reformatory. Dittéau was paroled from the reformatory January 28 this year and has violated his parole. He was received by the reformatory June 8, 1900, for a robbery. He is 5 feet 3 inches tall and weighs about 113 pounds. He has blonde hair, brown eyes and a fair complexion. A reward of $25 is offered for his safe return. He is thought to be somewhere in this locality.

Old Soldiers Attended.

The funeral of the late William Frazer, who died Friday morning near Smith's Mills, back of this city, was held yesterday at 10 o'clock from the residence. Rev. Mr. Oliver, pastor of the Brick church, officiated. Interment was in Oak Ridge cemetery. A number of old soldiers from this city attended the funeral, the deceased having been a member of the One Hundred and Forty-third O. V. I.

Mischief Remedied.

One of the cannons upon the public square, which has been tipped up on end ever since last Halloween, was replaced to its former position some time in the night. None of the city policemen knew who replaced the canon to its former position, but it is believed that it was the same crowd of boys who tipped it over.

Defendant Forfeited Bond.

In the assault and battery case of Ohio against Samuel Beaver, which was set for hearing last evening before Mayor Fogo at 7 o'clock, Beaver, who had put up $25 security, failed to appear and his bond was forfeited. Beaver is alleged to have struck Thomas Howell in Higginson's saloon. He will be arrested again on the same charge.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

CLAY AND HISTORY.

Burnt clay was used long before Christ, not only in its common application, but also as pottery. We feel a certain pride when visiting museums to see ancient pottery ware, and when we can point out the artistic and mechanical finish with which some pieces were made, says S. Geijssen, in an article on "Clay as a Commercial Commodity." We find among the old reliques weapons for personal defense made of burnt clay. The most ancient of industries is the making and forming of vessels from baked clay, and it is worthy of note that, simple as were its original processes and crude its primitive product, no industry has more developed to luxury. Clay has produced the most gorgeous specimens of ornamentation. In no industry does the value of the finished article bear so great a ratio to that of the raw material, as in clay, and the clay industry has steadily and continually advanced and improved with the progress of knowledge, and with the resources and discoveries of science, that we can say that to date the clay industry is keeping pace with every other industry in the world. Clay has received at all times the patronage and admiration of all generations, and civilization of nations is often judged by the heights of the art their clay industry has attained.

Hieroglyphics inscribed on wet clay slabs, afterwards burnt, have furnished more data to the discovery of ancient history than any other document found, even if they were written on parchment. Those clay slabs have stood the wear and tear and weather conditions of over 3,000 years, and the honor belongs to clay for having produced a material which is practically indestructible in the burnt clay state. In the catacombs of Thebes and Benihassau, which have been proved to have existed 19 centuries before Christ, and therefore, 3,800 years from the present time, drawings have been discovered, exhibiting in great variety of outlines the processes of the pottery industry as practiced at that time. They give an idea of the work of the potter, from the wedging of the clay by feet to the drawing of the ware from the kiln, certainly testifying that the handling and use of clay is a very old art. The Chinese traditions carry back the practice of using clay to a very remote period. It appears from the researches of Stanislaus Julian that from the time of Emperor Hoang Ti, who reigned about 250 B. C., there already existed a public office under the title of "Intendant of Clay." Dr. Drury Fortnum mentions in his work on ancient history that he has found bricks of terra-cotta coated with beautiful turquoise blue glaze, and gives as the most recent data that these bricks have been used 522 B. C., when Babylon was destroyed by Darius.

FAVORED OPERATIVES.

The arbitration board met on last Friday evening in the rooms of the Potters' club, in the Thompson building. The following members of the committee were present: Manufacturers—W. E. Wells, J. R. Warner and S. M. Ferguson, representing Henry Goodwin. The operatives were represented by George Smith, E. N. Croxall and William Anderson. The cup dispute from the Akron China company, submitted at a previous meeting, was taken up and disposed of. The cup is an out of the ordinary design and the jiggers wanted three and a half cents a dozen for turning it. The manufacturers offered two and a half. The contention of the jiggers was sustained. Local manufacturers pay three and one-half cents for practically the same work. It was decided by the board that all disputes submitted be laid over at least one meeting before being decided in order that both sides can have ample time to present the case.

POTTERY AT CAMERON, W. VA.

The citizens of Cameron, W. Va., are reported jubilant over the landing of a pottery plant of six kilns, that will employ seventy-five skilled workmen and 200 unskilled with a pay roll of at least $1,500 per month. It will necessitate a vast building boom in connection with present great progress along that line, as there will be about 500 additional inhabitants to provide for. The new plant will manufacture semi-porcelain and decorated chinaware. The first building will be 415 feet long and 110 feet wide, to which will be added the electric power house. The location selected is in the western suburb near the present glass factory. The promoters are Benedum Bros., A. E. Fox and a number of citizens in town with a practical pottery man from the outside.

PORCELAIN INK.

A London paper gives this recipe for ink for writing on porcelain or glass: Dissolve in water bath ten parts bleached shellac and five parts Venice turpentine in fifteen parts of oil turpentine. Incorporate in the solution five parts of lampblack. So-called diamond ink for writing on glass is a compound of fluoric acid and barium; the latter has no effect, being simply a white powder to give body to the acid. The ink can be used with a rubber hand stamp, and should be allowed to remain fifteen minutes, when the barium will brush off, leaving the design on the porcelain.

PECULIAR MISHAP.

Herbert Ruhe, employed as a moulder at Burford's, had a rather peculiar accident Sunday afternoon that might have resulted more seriously. With number of his young companions he was enjoying himself swinging on the grape vines on Walker's cliff. Young Ruhe had selected a vine that carried him out quite a distance and at least 20 feet from the ground. On one of his trips the vine slipped from his grasp and he was precipitated to the ground. He fell on a stump and was unconscious for about half an hour. He is not seriously injured, but his escape borders on the miraculous.

No Sleep for Weeks Nervous, Weak.

Surgical Operation Wrecked My Nerves.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Re- stored My Health.

"A few years ago I had to submit to a surgical operation which caused me severe spinal trouble. After treatment I could not gain strength because of extreme nervousness. I took everything I could hear of that was supposed to be good for my trouble but all in vain. I had not had a night's sleep in weeks, when one day one of your circulars was thrown into my yard and after reading what your Nervine had done for others, I resolved to try it. The second night after taking it I slept soundly for the first time in many months and after taking a few bottles I was completely cured. I also used the Nerve Plaster for backache with very gratifying results. I shall always be grateful for the benefits received from Dr. Miles' Restorative Remedies."—Mrs. C. W. Beaman, Savannah, Mo.

"I wish to thank you for the good your medicine has done me. It has almost worked wonders in my case. I was subject to nervous headaches for a period of thirty days. I had consulted with several doctors and had taken a number of different kinds of patent medicines, all to no avail. I was discouraged for I could not get permanent relief. At last I began a trial of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Nerve and Liver Pills. I am now completely cured and words cannot express my thankfulness to you and your medicine. If anyone wishes to write to me personally I will gladly answer their letters."—J. W. Brant, Ingraham, Ills.

BUSY AT BRUNT'S.

The rush in the decorating department at the William Brunt pottery is the greatest in the history of the plant. Yesterday afternoon this department was so filled with ware that it was almost impossible for the operatives to find room for work. From present indications the rush will continue right into the holiday season, even though the nights are being utilized.

BARBERS AND BOSSSES

A Conference to Be Held This Evening In Effort to Settle the Dispute.

It is now thought that the conference which the Barbers' union instructed its committee to secure with the bosses will be held this evening. The committee from the shop owners was notified after the last meeting of the union that a meeting was desired for Friday night, but none of the bosses put in an appearance. The meeting was then arranged for tonight.

The session will not be a lengthy one, as the journeymen's committee has its instructions and they are perfectly clear. The latter gentlemen will insist upon the legal holiday observance, and unless it is acceded to the organization is prepared to fight, and will do so. This information was given out by a journeyman today.

Ravenna, November 25.—Mrs. Helen Stogdill-Gore, who was killed in Paris, lived in Ravenna about 15 years ago. At that time she went to California. Her brother, C. D. Stogdill, is a member of the firm of Work & Co. here, and first knew that the dead singer was his sister when a telegram from Cleveland relatives apprised him of the fact, and he at once left for that city.

He firmly believes that his sister did not die as the result of an accident, for in letters received by him she had referred to the persecutions of the man now charged with the crime and had expressed the fear that he would kill her.

TIRED OUT.

There's many a farmer's wife sits on the porch in the growing shadows of a summer evening, knowing to the full what it is to feel tired out; as if there was not another ounce of effort left in her. But she knows how sound her slumber will be and how refreshed the morning will find her. That's the tiredness of a healthy woman. But it's another thing for the sick woman to feel tired out. Rest only seems to increase her suffering. Just as in profound silence a discord jars the ear more forcibly, so now that she has stopped moving about, this tired woman feels more acutely the aching back and throbbing nerves.

Sick women, hundreds of thousands of them, have been made well by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"Words cannot tell what I suffered for thirteen years with rheumatism, leggins down pains through my hips and back," writes Mrs. John Dickson, of Grenfell, Assinibina Dist. N. W. Ter. "I can't describe the misery it was to be on my feet long at a time. I could not eat or sleep often at night. Then saw Dr. Pierce's medicine advertised and thought would try them. Had not taken one bottle till I was feeling well. After I had taken five bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' I was like a new woman. Could eat and sleep and do all my own work."

not a little interest in the record of Larry Lutz, the local boxer, and thought a match might be arranged between the latter and Kennedy.

It is understood Shay had a talk with Lutz and soon learned it would not be difficult to arrange the preliminaries for a contest, provided Kennedy could get down to the weight. Shay claimed to have plenty of money with which to back his man, and had no doubt he could get to the proper point in the matter of weight, but could not see the necessity of insisting upon this, since both men were so evenly matched in this regard. Shay said: "I have $150 which I will deposit with any substantial citizen for a match between Kennedy and Lutz, the only stipulation being that they fight at catch weights."

POSTOFFICE ROBBED

Safe Blown Open at Enon Valley And Over $500 Taken By Thieves.

Beaver Falls, Pa., November 25.—The Enon valley postoffice was robbed Sunday night of $482 in cash and $43.50 in stamps. The robbers got away without being discovered. The postmaster learned of the affair when he opened yesterday morning.

The robbers had cut out a wooden shutter, then cut the glass in the window, removed the stick that held it and then began to work on the safe.

The door was shattered by the explosion and much damage was done to the postoffice furniture. Not satisfied with the haul, they got out of the safe they tore open all the desks and drawers in the place in hopes of finding more money and stamps.

Chicago, Ill., December 19, 1901.
Dear Sirs—In taking my food in a hurried and hasty way, sometimes taking only five or six minutes to finish a meal, brought on indigestion and sick headaches, which troubled me so much that I sought the doctor's advice. My skin was rough and pimpled and I was dull and heavy. The doctor said my blood and stomach were badly out of order, and advised me to take a regular course of treatment. I took his medicine for two weeks without getting any better. One of my friends who had been using advised me to try that. I bought a bottle that same day, and began to get better at once. Within a month I was like a new being—feet light, happy and well, and I have enjoyed perfect health since, thanks to your excellent remedy.

Very truly yours,

Constipation

Will Undermine Your Health.

Mull's Grape Tonic Cures Constipation.

When the sewer of a city becomes stopped up, the refuse backs into the streets where it decays and rots, spreading disease-creating germs throughout the entire city. An epidemic of sickness follows. It is the same way when the bowels fail to work. The undigested food backs into the system and there it rots and decays. From this festering mass the blood saps up all the disease germs, and at every heart beat carries them to every tissue just as the water works of a city forces impure water into every house. The only way to cure a condition like this is to cure the constipation. Pills and the ordinary cathartics will do no good.

MULL'S GRAPE TONIC
Is a crushed fruit tonic-laxative which permanently cures the affliction. The tonic properties contained in the grape go into every afflicted tissue and creates rich, red blood. As a laxative its action is immediate and positive, gentle and natural. Mull's Grape Tonic is guaranteed or money back.

19TH YEAR. NO. 279.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1902.

TWO CENTS.

UNCONSCIOUS AN HOUR COVERED WITH BRUISES AND BLEEDING TERRIBLY

The Frightful Plight in Which John Walters
Found Himself After an Unpro-
voked Assault.

Lying prostrate with his face buried in a pool of blood, John Walters, a resident of Second street, who has been employed in local potteries as a kiln firer for over 20 years, awoke at 3:30 o'clock this morning in Mulberry alley, between Third and Fourth streets, is suffering with a burning headache and from bruises located at many different spots over his body.

For a few minutes after waking his brain was so muddled that he could remember nothing and he lay trying to collect his thoughts. Blood which had streamed from wounds inflicted on his forehead had filled his eyes until he could not see, and it was only after a superhuman effort that he regained his feet and was able to walk from the lonely spot.

Going to his home he was tendered the care of friends, and after the blood had been washed away and his wounds dressed he was placed in bed and rested as comfortably as could be expected during the remainder of the night.

He was seen by a News Review reporter this afternoon and said that he had not the least idea who had put him in his terrible condition. He was en route to his home at about 2:30 o'clock, and when entering the alley from Fourth street noticed two men crouching low near the residence of Tom Dailey, but thought nothing of it and when they sprang at him he was taken very much unawares. A blow dealt by one of the brutal cowards felled Mr. Walters and then both landed dozens of hard kicks on his side top of his head and face. After that he remembers nothing until waking an hour later.

The intention of the dastardly high-waymen Mr. Walters does not know, as they did not rob him and he does not know of having an enemy in the city who would resort to such tactics in getting even.

Wilson—no relation to Simon Haught's erstwhile boarder—was arrested by Officer McDermott and lodged in jail. This morning he was arraigned on two charges, one for being drunk and disorderly and the other for carrying a concealed weapon. He pleaded guilty to both, and on the first was fined $2 and costs and on the second $5 and costs. He will rest it out behind the bars.

Natty Morelein was also arrested by Officer McDermott. He pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness and was fined $10 and costs. If he fails to produce by this evening he will be sent to Canton tomorrow.

Well Known As State Treasurer And Former Representative From This County.

Columbus, November 25.—(Special)—Hon. William T. Cope, ex-state treasurer, for many years a resident of Salineville, is very seriously ill as a result of a stroke of paralysis at his home at 222 King avenue, Columbus, Saturday night. Mr. Cope is one of the best known men in Ohio. His entire right side is affected and he is barely able to articulate. He is still conscious.

Mr. Cope was a resident of Salineville for many years, where he conducted a large general store. He also was cashier of the Salineville Banking company, afterwards the firm of Cope & Thompson, bankers. He left Salineville about 16 years ago, locating in Cleveland, where he became a member of a large coal firm. He was elected treasurer of state from Cleveland serving two terms, 1892 to 1896.

He served in the civil war as captain of Company A, 143rd Ohio Volunteer Infantry. He sustained a slight attack of paralysis about two years ago. Last January he resigned the presidency of the Commercial National bank, of this city, the state of his health, inducing the step.

Thomas J. Duffy, who went from this city as a delegate to the American Federation of Labor at New Orleans, returned today.

The eight-hour movement was discussed thoroughly. A resolution introduced to have the working people vote the Socialistic ticket was defeated. BOATLOAD UPSET

Three Persons Riding on the River Involuntarily Took an Icy Bath.

As the result of a peculiar escapade, three people, one of them a woman weighing close to 200 pounds, had a narrow escape from a watery grave yesterday afternoon at about 4 o'clock in the Ohio river near the first pier of the East Liverpool bridge.

One of the trio is known by the name of Miller and resides in a shanty boat moored in the river on the West Virginia side, a short distance from the tin mill. The woman's name cannot be learned, but it is said that she is Miller's housekeeper. The name of the third person is also unknown.

They had, it is claimed, been for several hours indulging in booze at a notorious resort on Smoky Row, and when they reached the edge of the river a number of people employed along the wharf say that all were in a beastly state of intoxication. Miller pushed a johnboat off shore into the water, and like a barrel of salt each rolled into it. The woman and the unknown man were sitting in the rear seat, while Miller had the oars. He managed to get the boat under headway, and everything progressed nicely until the two in the rear seat became top heavy and lunged simultaneously over to one side of the boat.

Their weight was too much for the light craft. It upset and out into the cold water the three went sprawling. That they escaped death is due to the fact that the water at that point is only a few feet deep. The men were brave and thought naught of themselves, but turned their entire attention to the female in their charge. They dragged her from the jaws of death and placed her in the boat, which they had righted. To the bank they then towed the craft, and for the first time displayed a part of unglamorous. Instead of carrying her to the bank while they bailed the boat they allowed her to lie prostrate in the water until it was removed.

Miller then took the oars and leaving the other man started with his housekeeper for the other side. They made the trip without further trouble, but it is expected that the woman will suffer from the effects of the icy bath.

Miller, it is said, is a pottery worker, and the woman only joined him recently, coming from some place near Marietta.

WOMAN WITH GARDEN HOSE DEFIED GANG OF WORKERS AND KEPT THEM AT BAY

Mrs. Thomas Bennett Did Not Want a Telephone Pole Near Her House and It Was Not Erected.

With a garden hose as her only friction and gave the company permission to erect one there.

About three weeks ago, says Mrs. Bennett, a gang of men started to dig the hole but when she protested they ceased. She thought then that her troubles were over and was very much surprised this morning when the men appeared again and started the work. The gang is in charge of Phil Corbett, but that gentleman was not present when the unusual happening occurred. J. D. Henderson was acting as temporary boss and he was the one that got the full benefit of the woman's wrath. The hole had been dug and twice were the men compelled to make the excavation. Mrs. Bennett and her son filling it up each time with bricks and dirt. Both protested with vehemence against further procedure on the part of the men but their words prevailed not.

Finally Mrs. Bennett got a board

PRETTY TEACHER HAS ELOPED

Young Lady Well Known in This County Figures in a Sensation.

TWO MEN OF FAMILY STATE LAW ON SUBJECT

Are Alleged to Have Run Away With Women, One Being the Daughter of George W. McGinnis, Former School Superintendent.

Columbus, November 25.—(Special)—A special from Asheville, N. C., tells of a sensational double elopement, a beautiful and accomplished Columbiana county lady being one of the elopers. According to the dispatch, she is Miss Pearl McGinnis, of Signal, and the man she eloped with is Prof. H. D. Bridgewater, a prominent educator of Toronto, Canada. On the train which bore the couple was Dr. D. H. Montgomery, and Mrs. Elias Grossett, both of Paololet, who also eloped. Both Dr. Montgomery and Prof. Bridgewater leave a wife and three children, one girl and boys girls in each case. Society is greatly wrought up over the affair on account of the prominence of the parties involved.

Miss Pearl McGinnis is well known to many former Columbiana county people now residing here, who are shocked, and hope the story will prove to be untrue. Miss McGinnis is a school teacher and is the daughter of George W. McGinnis, who was superintendent of the schools at Columbiana for a number of years. He was a very successful educator and was well known throughout the state. He parted with his first wife and afterwards ran away with a Miss Snyder, one of his teachers. They were married, but his second marriage, like the first, was marked by domestic infelicity and in a short time he and his second wife separated and went in opposite directions.

After leaving Columbiana he taught in several different places in the state, and finally went to Allegheny, where he secured a position in one of the schools there. He does not hold it now. His daughter, Pearl, her former friends say, was unusually bright, beautiful and modest, and had winsome ways which made her a general favorite. They are of the opinion that she went to Asheville to take a teaching position. Her father's troubles are familiar to Columbiana county people.

The local lineup will be as follows: Rigby center; Bloor and Wilson, forwards; Jim Chadwick and Watkins, guards.

has been necessary to straighten out the tangle.

If the new system is what the powers intended it to be, it will be possible for a man of ordinary intelligence to see at a glance just what has been accomplished in the various departments; just what the expenditures have been and what the receipts are. No one can fail to see the advantage of a plan of this character.

Ever since City Clerk Willis Davidson took charge of the office in this city he has been in favor of a system of this kind, and feels that when it is adopted it will be found generally satisfactory. The methods now employed by this official are simple and intelligent, and he has been commend many times during his incumbency or the neatness and simplicity of his systems. Still, he holds it would be castly better to have a universal plan upon which to work. The only trouble, he asserts, is in the adoption by the state authorities of a plan which would suit all municipalities, because different conditions prevail in different communities.

It is the opinion of Clerk Davidson that it would be possible to adopt a system that would be readily understood by everybody. "It would not be necessary to demonstrate to those who handle your books that you knew it ill," said Mr. Davidson yesterday, but instead it should be made as clear as possible so that the clerk which follows may have a very simple rule of bookkeeping to follow. I invariably follow this custom, and there is no trouble whatever in discovering a mistake, if one should occur."

The auditing committee appointed by council each year has spent hours in going over the books, not because of their lack of knowledge with reference to business systems and methods, but because of the intricate and personal plans of running a set of books. The question has been discussed at length by a number of the councilmen, and they are of the opinion the same system should prevail over the state.

At the last regular session of the general assembly, held last spring, a bill was passed requiring that all cities of the state adopt the same system of municipal accounting, the plan to be prepared and tested, and when approved by the auditor of the state to be supplied to the several city clerks and other municipal accountants.

The only drawback to the success of operation of the measure at that time was the all-important fact that the lawmakers failed to make the necessary appropriation to pay the salaries of the additional accountants who have been added to Auditor Gilbert's force. However, when the extraordinary session was held a few weeks ago, the matter was taken up and the appropriation made furnishing the necessary money.

It has been said that heretofore all of the city clerks and accountants who have charge of any department of municipal work, whether in the engineering, water works, the commissioners' or any other department, may adopt any system they like and conduct it as they see fit, so long as those in charge of these departments raise no objection. The result of this custom has been that every bookkeeper has conducted his office on a plan of accounting peculiar to himself, and different in many ways from his predecessor. So it has been a source of much annoyance and not a little expense to every city. In some cases an expert

$10,000 IS ASKED

BY A. W. HILL

IN A SUIT AGAINST UNITED POWER COMPANY.

Says He Was Seriously Injured While Riding in an East Liverpool Street Car.

Lisbon, November 25.—(Special)—The $10,000 damage suit of Arthur D. Hill, of East Liverpool, against the United Power company of that city, is being heard today. Mr. Hill, in his petition, says that on March 11, 1902, when he was riding to Wellsville on one of the company's cars he received internal injuries which have caused him great suffering, and from which he has not recovered.

The car was running at a rapid rate, and in striking a depression in the roadway jumped the track and went down an embankment. Mr. Hill was thrown across a seat immediately in front of him, receiving severe injuries about the abdomen. He has been unable to follow his calling as real estate dealer and has been abroad for treatment since.

P. M. Smith, Wellsville, and W. S. Anderson, Youngstown, represent the plaintiff, and Congressman R. W. Taylor and Prosecuting Attorney J. H. Brookes are appearing for the defendant.

OVERCOME IN COURT

Mrs. Ellen O'Connor, of This City, Seized With Paralysis at Lisbon.

Lisbon, November 25.—(Special)—Mrs. Ellen O'Connor, wife of Edward M. O'Connor, of Monroe street, East Liverpool, who was a witness in a case on trial here yesterday, was seized with a stroke of paralysis in the court room after testifying and for a time her condition was regarded as very serious. She was unable to talk. Dr. Moore was called and found she was suffering from paralysis. She was taken to a hospital. Today she is reported better and will be taken home.

She was a witness in the suit of her mother, Mrs. Starkey, against her brother, Thomas Starkey. Mrs. Starkey is suing to recover $400 which she alleges her son borrowed. After Mrs. O'Connor's sudden illness, a compromise was effected, Starkey to pay his mother $200 and costs.

Those of the city who expect to be examined for positions which the board of public safety has power to grant under the Nash code need have no fear of injurious tales of their past or present being reported to the board for the purpose of diminishing their chances for appointment. The following section, 172 of the code, applies directly to that point and will be of much interest to not only prospective candidates for examination, but to the citizen in general:

"No person or officer shall wilfully or corruptly, by himself or in co-operation with one or more persons, defeat, deceive or obstruct any persons, with respect to his right to examination, or falsely or corruptly mark, grade or estimate or report upon the examination or proper standing of any person examined hereunder, or aid in so doing, or wilfully or corruptly make any false representation concerning the same or concerning the person examined, or wilfully or corruptly furnish to any person any special or secret information for the purpose of either improving or injuring the prospects or chances of the person so examined or to be examined, or to be appointed, employed or promoted, or wilfully impersonate any other person or permit or aid in any manner any other person to impersonate him in connection with any examination or registration or application, or request to be examined or registered, or who shall make known to any applicant for exoneration, in advance of such examination any question to be asked on such examination, shall for each offense be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor."

The applicant, although befriended by the above, will be restricted in a manner as severe. No applicant for appointment, either directly or indirectly, shall pay or promise to pay any money or other valuable thing to any person whomsoever, for or on account of his appointment or proposed appointment, and no officer or employee shall pay or promise to pay either directly or indirectly to any person any money or valuable thing whatsoever for or on account of his promotion. The applicants must pass examinations and receive appointments on their own personal merits. Section 174 says that no applicant for appointment or promotion shall ask for or receive a recommendation or assistance from any officer or employee in any department of the city government, or from any person, upon the consideration of any political service rendered or to be rendered to or for any such person, or for the promotion of such person to any office or appointment. Nor shall any person solicit orally or by letter, or be in any manner concerned in soliciting any assessment, contribution or payment for any party or any political purpose whatsoever from any officer or employee who is included within the department of public service of the city government of any such city.

Lobbying with a political purpose in view will be prohibited in any room or building occupied for the discharge of the official duties of any officer or employee in the department of public safety, and no person in charge of such room or building shall permit any person to enter the same for the purpose of therein soliciting or delivering written or oral solicitations or receiving or giving notice of any political assessments.

EAST ENDFUNERAL TOMORROW

Services Will Be Held at the Second U. P. Church at 2 p. m., By Rev. Mr. McQuiston.

The funeral services of the late Milton Martin, who died yesterday at his home on Erie street, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Second Presbyterian church. Rev. D. W. McQuiston, the pastor, will officiate, assisted by Rev. N. M. Crowe, of the Second Presbyterian church. The services will be taken in charge by Pan-American court No. 127, of which he was a member. The interment will be made at Riverview cemetery.

Mr. Martin was a son of Edward and Jane Martin, pioneer citizens, who came to this city about fifty years ago from England. They have been dead a number of years. He was born in this city 27 years ago and like his father became a skilled worker in clay, and was employed at Laughlin No. 2 as a presser. He was married to Miss Pearl Searight, who with two children, Alberta, aged about three years and Caroline, about one year of age, survive him.

The surviving brothers and sisters are: Thomas and Edward Martin, Mrs. D. J. Wallace, Mrs. Gus. Brandenburg, and Mrs. Jennie Noah, all of this city. Mr. Martin was conscious until the last and made a number of requests, among them that the funeral be held at the church and the last moments with his loved ones was extremely touching. He had lived in his new home on Erie street only a month.

AN ENTERTAINMENT

Will Be Given Thanksgiving Night By the Colored People in Larkins & Ferguson's Hall.

The colored people are arranging for a Thanksgiving celebration to be given under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. in Larkins & Ferguson's hall next Thursday evening. Supper will be served and the following program will be rendered:

Music, Ormes' orchestra; recitation, Genevieve Daniels; piano solo, Miss Georgia Webb; solo, Hayes Davis; selection, Mandolin club; selection, Mrs. Good; music, orchestra; duet, Mrs. Foster and Miss Hattie Ross; piano solo, Miss Alice Minnis; cornet solo, William Ormes; selection, Mandolin club.

Plenty of Amusement.

Plenty of amusement has been provided for the people of the East End this week, which promises to be quite the gayest of the season. The entertainments present quite a diversity, enough perhaps to suit all tastes. Tonight the ladies of the Erie street M. E. church hold their bazaar and rummage sale in the P. H. C. hall. Wednesday night the Nonpareil club has a dance, Thursday evening the colored people will give a Thanksgiving supper and entertainment and Friday night it is a Nonpareil club dance again. All will be given in the Larkins & Ferguson building.

Will See the Fight.

The Kenney-Matthews fight tonight at Pittsburg is attracting a great deal of interest among the lovers of the manly art in the East End, some of whom are acquainted with one or both of the contestants. They are picking Matthews as the winner. Messrs. Will Ferguson, Lawrence Fisher and W. D. Hopkins are among those who will go to the Smoky City to see the contest.

Found His Christmas Gift.

William Copstick, the big jiggerman at the Laughlin No. 3 plant, is wearing a fine diamond ring today of which he is extremely proud. His wearing it, however, is a little premature for it was purchased by his family for a Christmas present for him. Mr. Copstick came across the gift at the house accidentally and immediately appropriated it.

Thanksgiving Prayer Service.

A special Thanksgiving prayer service will be held Thursday evening at the Second U. P. church, to which all are cordially invited. The services will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. McQuiston, and will take the place of the regular cottage prayer meetings.

"The demand for workers in Chicago is largely in excess of the supply," says a dispatch from that city. "Of the 260,000 men enrolled in the ranks of union labor not one is idle, unless he be among the few on strike." The demand extends to every branch of labor. Railroad laborers are so scarce that 3,000 have been brought to Chicago from distant points in the west. When a great city has all its able-bodied people employed and has to look elsewhere for more workers, it would appear to be at the zenith of prosperity. Yet the conditions that exist in Chicago are typical of the great American cities today, as well as in the smaller cities and towns. Nobody need be idle anywhere who is able and willing to work. What this means is comfort and happiness for millions, in the alleviation of misery and the banishment of distress and of the terrible fear thereof is something so great that no pen can adequately depict it. Truly, the working people of America have abundant reason for celebrating Thanksgiving day this year with unusual zest and joyousness.

Thousands of men who have lived in fear and trembling can now take heart again. The circuit court at Sandusky has decided that the husband is the head of the household. The same question has been decided before in the same way. But the decision is supplemented by an opinion far-reaching and perhaps unprecedented. In a case brought before it, the court mentioned ruled that even if the wife owns the property, the husband has a right to keep his mother-in-law away from the house, if he believes she is causing trouble, and to use force, if necessary. The court held that the husband has the right to exclude any visitors if he has reason to believe they are interfering between himself and his wife.

A learned man of ancient time once drafted a set of laws in which he provided no penalty for the crime of matricide. When his attention was called to the oversight, he said he thought no man would be guilty of such a crime. It appears that our own lawmakers have overlooked the possibility of crimes at American legislatures and as a result the son of Minister Hunter, at Guatemala, who killed another American in that city, is likely to go scot-free unless the Guatemalan government chooses to arrest and punish him. Legal technicalities or the absence of law, which enable any criminal to escape responsibility for his crime are not a credit to our civilization.

If ex-Minister Wu continues to talk as nicely about us Americans after he gets home as he has talked here, he ought to be able to do a good deal towards banishing hatred of foreigners from China. That is, provided he has any influence with the administration with which he is connected.

With all the arguments that are put forth against them, the colleges and universities keep on growing. Twenty years ago there was not a university in the United States that had 3,000 students. Last year six institutions each had more than that number, while probably nine-tenths of the smaller colleges showed a greatly increased attendance. The good old-fashioned idea that a college education is a good thing is more popular than ever.

The crops this year have been good, the increase in the yield of corn, as compared with last year, being 1,000,000 bushels. The rest of the cereals in the aggregate amount to much above an average crop. Apparently, there will be a good demand in Europe for most of the grain which we can spare. This will increase the work of the railroads in shipping it to the coast. Here is one of the causes of the freight car shortage, and also of the rise in wages and freight rates.

The Maine candidate for the speakership, Littlefield, is a good man, but he stands no show. Maine, having had in recent years two of the most brilliant speakers who ever presided in the house, Blaine and Reed, ought to be content to rest for a while on her laurels.

It matters not whether jealousy of Andrew Carnegie prompts his late partner, Henry C. Frick, to make large gifts to education. The benefits will be the same. Pittsburgh is fortunate in its millionaires. They are not only very rich, but very generous.

Riots in the capital of Cuba are a sad thing for a new government that is presumably anxious to command respect among the powers of the earth.

Burglars and safe robbers across the line in Pennsylvania are exhibiting a species of activity that ought to be discouraged with shot guns.

Congress does not convene until the football season ends, consequently its proceedings may attract some popular attention.

The Burlington railroad proposes to pay its employees $1,000 each for dead train robbers. What will the harvest be?

A Mexican dollar is now worth 50 cents. Why does not Bryan move to Mexico and be happy?

About this time the turkey discovers why he has been fed so well of late.

SCRAP IRON CASE

Dealers Disputed Over a Bill And a Protracted Trial Resulted.

The law suit of J. F. Householder, an Irondale scrap iron dealer, against W. H. Scheckler, of this city, also a dealer in scrap iron, was contested for nearly three hours and a half yesterday afternoon before Squire Riley and a jury of six men in the council chamber at the city hall. The dispute was over the payment of a bill for nine loads of scrap iron purchased by Mr. Scheckler from Mr. Householder last October and amounted to about $70.

Four witnesses were heard for the defendant in the case and two for the plaintiff. Attorney W. F. Lones, of this city, represented Mr. Scheckler and Attorney James E. Paisley, of Irondale, the plaintiff. The jury was composed of H. H. Catlett, E. J. Whitten, S. F. Biggs, Dallas Pittinger, G. J. Niles and H. V. Sinclair. Shortly before 4 o'clock they retired to the mayor's private office and in about three-quarters of an hour returned with a verdict for the plaintiff. They allowed him $6.75.

DR. TRACY'S LECTURES

Concluded Last Evening With an Interesting Platform Meeting—A Successful Series.

The last lecture of the series given by Dr. N. W. Tracy, the noted Kentucky evangelist, in this city was delivered last evening at the opera house. A platform meeting was held and several of the local ministers took part. "Ben Hur" was given. The story was thoroughly illustrated by Dr. Tracy with his stereopticon machine. Several moving pictures were also shown.

One of the largest crowds that have yet attended any of the evangelist's lectures was present, the opera house being packed to the doors. Dr. Tracy will soon return to this city some Sunday and will address a men's meeting in the opera house. The lectures were pronounced by local ministers as very successful, good temperance work being done by Dr. Tracy.

Funeral of Mrs. Stewart.

The funeral of the late Mrs. James Stewart, who died Saturday evening was held at 9:30 this morning at the late home on First street. Rev. Lemoine C. Wells, of the Methodist Protestant church, officiated. The body was taken on the noon train to Toronto, the former home of the deceased and interred this afternoon. Mrs. Stewart is survived by six children. They are: Frank Stewart, of Cleveland; John Stewart, of Toronto; Mrs. Martin O'Neil, of New Brighton, Pa.; James Stewart, Mrs. Charles Williamson and Mrs. Sarah Deemer, all of this city. Mrs. Stewart resided with her daughter, Mrs. Deemer, for the past 20 years.

Violated His Parole.

Mayor W. L. Fogo is in receipt of a communication from Supt. J. A. Leonard, of the Ohio state reformatory at Mansfield, asking that the local police force be on the lookout for a young man named Clark Dittéau, aged 18 years, who is wanted at the reformatory. Dittéau was paroled from the reformatory January 28 this year and has violated his parole. He was received by the reformatory June 8, 1900, for a robbery. He is 5 feet 3 inches tall and weighs about 113 pounds. He has blonde hair, brown eyes and a fair complexion. A reward of $25 is offered for his safe return. He is thought to be somewhere in this locality.

Old Soldiers Attended.

The funeral of the late William Fraser, who died Friday morning near Smith's Mills, back of this city, was held yesterday at 10 o'clock from the residence. Rev. Mr. Oliver, pastor of the Brick church, officiated. Interment was in Oak Ridge cemetery. A number of old soldiers from this city attended the funeral, the deceased having been a member of the One Hundred and Forty-third O. V. I.

Mischievous Remedied.

One of the cannons upon the public square, which has been tipped up on end ever since last Halloween, was replaced to its former position some time in the night. None of the city policemen knew who replaced the cannon to its former position, but it is believed that it was the same crowd of boys who tipped it over.

Defendant Forfeited Bond.

In the assault and battery case of Ohio against Samuel Beaver, which was set for hearing last evening before Mayor Fogo at 7 o'clock, Beaver, who had put up $25 security, failed to appear and his bond was forfeited. Beaver is alleged to have struck Thomas Howell in Higginsson's saloon. He will be arrested again on the same charge.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

CLAY AND HISTORY.

Burnt clay was used long before Christ not only in its common application, but also as pottery. We feel a certain pride when visiting museums to see ancient pottery ware, and when we can point out the artistic and mechanical finish with which some pieces were made, says S. Geijssbeek, in an article on "Clay as a Commercial Commodity." We find among the old relics weapons for personal defense made of burnt clay. The most ancient of industries is the making and forming of vessels from baked clay, and it is worthy of note that, simple as were its original processes and crude its primitive product, no industry has more developed to luxury. Clay has produced the most gorgeous specimens of ornamentation. In no industry does the value of the finished article bear so great a ratio to that of the raw material as in clay, and the clay industry has steadily and continually advanced and improved with the progress of knowledge, and with the resources and discoveries of science that we can say that to date the clay industry is keeping pace with every other industry in the world. Clay has received at all times the patronage and admiration of all generations, and civilization of nations is often judged by the heights of the art their clay industry has attained.

Hieroglyphics inscribed on wet clay slabs, afterwards burnt, have furnished more data to the discovery of an ancient history than any other document found, even if they were written on parchment. Those clay slabs have stood the wear and tear and weather conditions of over 3,000 years, and the honor belongs to clay for having produced a material which is practically indestructible in the burnt clay state. In the catacombs of Thebes and Beni-Hassan, which have been proved to have existed 19 centuries before Christ, and therefore, 3,800 years from the present time, drawings have been discovered, exhibiting in great variety of outlines the processes of the pottery industry as practiced at that time. They give an idea of the work of the potter, from the wedging of the clay by feet to the drawing of the ware from the kiln, certainly testifying that the handling and use of clay is a very old art. The Chinese traditions carry back the practice of using clay to a very remote period. It appears from the researches of Stanislaus Julian that from the time of Emperor Hoang Ti, who reigned about 250 B. C., there already existed a public officer under the title of "Intendant of Clay." Dr. Drury Fortune mentions in his work on ancient history that he has found bricks of terra-cotta coated with beautiful turquoise blue glaze, and gives as the most recent data that these bricks have been used 522 B. C., when Babylon was destroyed by Darius.

THE PACKING PROBLEM.

About the first problem which will be laid before the new arbitration board, recently appointed, will be the packers' question, and when the joint committee gets down to business in dead earnest, the knowing ones say it will take some time to dispose of this perplexing problem. But few of the operatives, even among the most active members of the Brotherhood, have an idea what tactics the nine boss packers have resorted to in order that the other members of No. 25 should suffer for daring to oppose, as an organization, the unjust and unequal contract system, in vogue in this community for so many years. When the Trenton convention declared against the plan the local was quick to act—much more prompt, by the way, than either the executive board or the conference committee have been to relieve the ones who has sacrificed so much that the unreasonable and injurious practice might be done away with forever. The local expelled nine boss packers, not all of them by any means, but the most influential and powerful. The offense was a refusal on their part to

PORCELAIN INK.

A London paper gives this recipe for ink for writing on porcelain or glass: Dissolve in water bath ten parts bleached shellac and five parts Venice turpentine in fifteen parts of oil turpentine. Incorporate in the solution parts of lampblack. So-called diamond ink for writing on glass is a compound of fluoric acid and barium; the latter has no effect, being simply a white powder to give body to the acid. The ink can be used with a rubber hand stamp, and should be allowed to remain fifteen minutes, when the barium will brush off, leaving the design on the porcelain.

PECULIAR MISHAP.

Herbert Ruhe, employed as a mould runner at Burford's, had a rather peculiar accident Sunday afternoon that might have resulted more seriously. With a number of his young companions he was enjoying himself swinging on the grape vines on Walker's cliff. Young Ruhe had selected a vine that carried him out quite a distance and at least 20 feet from the ground. On one of his trips the vine slipped from his grasp and he was precipitated to the ground. He fell on a stump and was unconscious for about half an hour. He is not seriously injured, but his escape borders on the miraculous.

Tired

No Sleep for Weeks Nervous, Weak.

Surgical Operation Wrecked My Nerves.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Re-stored My Health.

"A few years ago I had to submit to a surgical operation which caused me severe spinal trouble. After treatment I could not gain strength because of extreme nervousness. I took everything I could hear of that was supposed to be good for my trouble but all in vain. I had not had a night's sleep in weeks, when one day one of your circulars was thrown into our yard and after reading what your Nervine had done for others, I resolved to try it. The second night after taking it I slept soundly for the first time in many months and after taking a few bottles I was completely cured. I also used the Nerve Plaster for backache with very gratifying results. I shall always be grateful for the benefits received from Dr. Miles' Restorative Remedies."—Mrs. C. W. Beaman, Savannah, Mo.

"I wish to thank you for the good your medicine has done me. It has almost worked wonders in my case. I was subject to nervous headaches for a period of thirty years. I had consulted with several doctors and had taken a number of different kinds of patent medicines, all to no avail. I was discouraged for I could not get permanent relief. At last I began a trial of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Nerve and Liver Pills. I am now completely cured and words cannot express my thankfulness to you and your medicine. If anyone wishes to write to me personally I will gladly answer their letters."—J. W. Brant, Ingraham, Ills.

BUSY AT BRUNT'S.

The rush in the decorating department at the William Brunt pottery is the greatest in the history of the plant. Yesterday afternoon this department was so filled with ware that it was almost impossible for the operatives to find room for work. From present indications the rush will continue right into the holiday season, even though the nights are being utilized.

BARBERS AND BOSSSES

A Conference to Be Held This Evening
In Effort to Settle the Dispute.

It is now thought that the conference which the Barbers' union instructed its committee to secure with the bosses will be held this evening. The committee from the shop owners was notified after the last meeting of the union that a meeting was desired for Friday night, but none of the bosses put in an appearance. The meeting was then arranged for tonight.

The session will not be a lengthy one, as the journeymen's committee has its instructions and they are perfectly clear. The latter gentlemen will insist upon the legal holiday observance, and unless it is conceded to the organization is prepared to fight, and will do so. This information was given out by a journeyman today.

He firmly believes that his sister did not die as the result of an accident, for in letters received by him she had referred to the persecutions of the man now charged with the crime and had expressed the fear that he would kill her.

WOMAN WITH GARDEN HOSE OFFIED GANG OF WORKERS AND KEPT THEM AT BAY

covering and placed it over the hole and then placed a chair on the boards. She then warned the men to go away and cease trespassing on her property.

Obstinate as before the men started once more to complete their work and had the pole partially raised and in readiness to drop it into the hole when the circus performance was witnessed.

Worked up to a point of desperation the irate woman rushed to the rear of her home, clutched a hose turned on the water and then rushed to the front. Giving the gand one more chance to scatter and they refusing point blank to do so, Mrs. Bennett daringly applied the stream.

Henderson was in the closest range and received most of the water. He and the others stood it for a moment, continuing at the work, but they finally gave up and made a quick retreat.

Her foe vanished, the heroine coolly laid away the hose and went to her front door to await further developments.

After an hour's deliberation the men decided to leave.

Mrs. Bennett, when interviewed by a News Review reporter, said: "They have no right to deface my property and I don't propose that they shall. We will allow them the privilege of placing the pole at a certain place in the alley, but we will never submit to them placing it in front of the house."

The men, when told that they could place the pole in the alley, were jubilant and this afternoon it stands unmolested, but with a history.

Attempted Hold-Up.

George Purdue, a C. & P. flagman reports that an attempt was made to hold him up on Eighteenth street by three men as he was returning from the West End to Main street about 11 o'clock last evening. The men tried to decoy him into an alley, but did not succeed. A hold-up in the same spot was reported a few nights ago.

No Quorum Present.
